1. Why, as a kid, did Josh think there was no hope or love anywhere in the world? Have you ever felt the way he did when he said goodbye to God as a twelve-year-old?
2. Mr. Turner, Faith's dad, asked Josh, "What is your relationship with Jesus Christ?" Why was this a confusing question to Josh at the time? How did he answer it? What would your answer be to that same question?
3. When Josh's friend Tim died, Josh wondered why the good perish and the wicked thrive. Have you ever wondered this? What conclusion have you come to?
4. What happened to suddenly change Josh's military plans? Have you ever had circumstances line up perfectly to help you change directions in life?
5. How did the Christian group at Kellogg Community College handle their interactions with Josh? Have you ever interacted with unbelievers like he did? If so, how were you like the Kellogg group? How were you different?
6. Who is Alan Cobb, and what role does he play in Josh's story? Do you have someone like Alan in your life?
7. What is the legal-historical method of proving something? How do you think it compares to scientific evidence?
8. How was Josh's perception of God as heavenly Father affected by his earthly father? How has your own perspective of God (good or bad) been influenced by your father?
9. Why did Josh go to Europe? What did he hope to accomplish, and why did he come home thinking he had failed? Did he fail?
10. Josh felt like Pastor Logan's sermons were sometimes preached directly at him. Have you ever felt this way? What messages have you heard recently that really spoke to you?
11. When did Josh truly know that Christianity was real? Have you had a similar moment of certainty in your life?
12. What role did forgiveness play in Josh's story? How has it played a part in your own life?
13. What circumstance brought Josh home after being away at Wheaton College? How was this detour an amazing part of God's plan for him?
14. What did Pastor Logan have to say about relationships and the Cross? What did this mean for Josh? How do you see this truth affecting your life?
15. Josh identified with the child in the Bible who offered a few fish and loaves of bread to Jesus in order to feed the multitudes. What did Josh have to offer God? How did God multiply those gifts? What do you have to offer?
16. How did "a cemetery become a seminary" for Josh? Has God ever drastically changed your view on something? Explain.
