

TESTIMONIALS

"Matt is a dynamic speaker who shares winsomely and passionately. He has a vast knowledge of apologetic and theological issues and is a trustworthy voice in this generation!"

Daniel Jansson
Lead Pastor, Imago Dei Church, CA

"Matt is a gifted and powerful communicator of God's Word. Even as a young man barely out of college, students in our area were captivated by his messages and preferred him to many seasoned speakers! In Matt, God has molded a unique blend of energy, drive, thoughtfulness, and humor with a deep passion for Jesus, his Word, and apologetics. Hear him!"

Brandon Smith
Evangelist with Ambassadors for Christ International

"Matthew is a Biblically sound teacher. He communicates the truths of God's word in a creative, thorough and inspiring way. I highly recommend Matthew."

Ray Fritz
Lead Pastor, Connections Church, MN

SOLIDIFY WEEKEND

WITH
MATTHEW TINGBLAD

A conference designed for teens and young adults to strengthen their faith against the storms of our secular culture.

WHY SOLIDIFY?

Many storms in today's culture pressure our youth to deconstruct their faith.

Equip your teens and young adults to stand firm with a rock-solid conviction that God is real, God is good, and God is worth it.

Talks will address the big questions of our time

- How can I discern truth in a world full of competing information?
- Can we trust the Bible's teaching about Jesus?
- Is God good in the Bible, in this world and in my own life?
- Why should I care about living out my faith?

4%

of teenagers have a Biblical worldview

1 in 5

young adults with a Christian background think Christianity is anti-intellectual (18%)

29%

of teenagers who reject God see evil and suffering as a barrier to faith

HOSTING SOLIDIFY WEEKEND

How much will it cost?

Serving you comes first. We'll work with you and your budget to figure out what is best.

What will you need to provide?

We'll need one room with proper amplification and projection equipment.

Will you provide promotional material?

Yes, we can provide promotional resources for you to use.

How does registration work?

You will have control over how you wish to register attendees, if at all.
